Mine development at Tarcoola underway with first FIFO services

WPG Resources Ltd (ASX: WPG; WPGO) is pleased to advise that fly-in fly-out (FIFO) services have commenced to its Tarcoola gold mine. The service is being operated by Ross Air, who also service the Challenger gold mine.

WPG Executive Chairman Bob Duffin today welcomed the official start of mine development at Tarcoola. He said “WPG has had a strong focus in South Australia and has a successful track record in project exploration and development. WPG has worked closely with DSD, project contractors and all stakeholders to reach this important milestone.”

It is anticipated the first ore to Challenger will be transported in mid-December for treatment.
